The screenshot shows a reporting interface with a 'Create Set' dialog box in the foreground. The dialog box has tabs for General, Condition, and Top, with General selected. It contains three radio buttons: 'Select from list', 'Custom value list', and 'Use all', with 'Use all' being the selected option and highlighted with a red circle and a black arrow. Below the radio buttons is a large empty area for defining the set. At the bottom are buttons for 'All', 'None', and 'Exclude'. A summary section displays field settings: Field: [Product Sub-Category], Selection: All, Wildcard: All, Condition: None, and Limit: None. At the bottom of the dialog are 'Reset', 'OK', and 'Cancel' buttons. The background shows a bar chart with categories like '129', '121,6', '92,209', and '87,918' on the right, and a legend for '100K' and '1' at the bottom right. On the left, there are various toolbar icons and a sidebar with sections like 'Pages', 'Iterators', 'Marks', and a color palette.
